

CHINA CLUB

China Club HQ is a fantastically comprehensive and recently launched programme which helps support the teaching and learning of Mandarin and Chinese culture in both Primary and Secondary schools, and particularly through the promotion of China as a cross curricular or whole school theme.

Delivered entirely online, the programme supports teachers and students during and outside school, and through an exciting combination of a lively Magazine, series of stylish TV Shows, extensive Curriculum Resource Bank, and easy to use Collaboration area, with all fully integrated and updated on a regular basis.

In summary, the key features of the programme include:

- Perfect for Primary, Transition and Secondary use, and across classes, departments and schools both nationally and internationally
- Delivered entirely online and for school or home access
- Regularly updated Magazine with articles that cover contemporary China and which feature an exciting range of subject areas relevant to young people
- Series of stylish TV Shows which focus on language tuition as well as cultural insight with all designed for classroom based teaching or individual study
- Comprehensive Curriculum based Resource Bank that offers a wide range of materials and to support subject specific departments as well as facilitate easy planning
- Collaboration area that allows members to set up their own weblogs, upload their own content, and communicate and collaborate with other schools within the China Club HQ community
- Comprehensive range of introductory language materials mapped against Asset Breakthrough and for use by specialist or non specialist language staff, within class or schools clubs
- Wide range of media content, including video clips, images and podcasts throughout, and to ensure learning is fun
