

Northern Primary Languages Show (pilot)
Saturday 5 November 2016 0930 – 1500
York Saint John University

This conference is being planned and will be delivered by teachers and experienced trainers from the North. It is for teachers of key stage 2 classes but relevant also to key stage 3, so we would love to see Secondary colleagues there too!

Directions:

Parking is a problem in York! and we recommend arriving by train if possible.

<http://www2.yorks.ac.uk/undergraduate/undergraduate-study/how-to-find-us.aspx>

From 9.30 Refreshments on arrival in the foyer

Before and after the event delegates can visit Le Bibliobook – Nathalie Paris’ travelling Library, parked outside Foss Building – and talk about her projects.

9.45 – 10.40 Welcome: Alison Organ, Therese Comfort

Opening plenary: Jim McElwee : Stimulating curiosity about Language

Jim will explore how children's natural interest in sounds can to help them to make sense of the written form of the second language.

10.45 – 11.30 Workshop 1: Choice from 3 workshops :

Vicky Cooke Cross-curricular	Sally Maynard Key Stage 1	Jim McElwee/ Therese Comfort Fun with Grammar
---------------------------------	------------------------------	--

11.35 – 12.20 Workshop 2: Choice from 3 workshops:

Catherine Cheater - Assessment – The Primary French Project	Clare Seccombe Games and resources	York teachers Being a Languages coordinator
The Primary French Project has been developed jointly by the Institut Français, ALL and Network for Languages, and provides free materials aimed at key stage 2 class teachers. Progression, assessment and attainment are key components. Prior to the conference, teachers may wish to browse or download materials from www.culturetheque.com (click on the learn tab, then Primary School). Users must register on the site, and must be logged in when browsing or downloading materials.

--	--	--

Lunch: Please bring (or fetch) your own lunch – there are lovely cafes in Gillygate nearby

13.20 – 14.05 Workshop 3: Choice from 3 workshops:

Janet Lloyd Drama	Nathalie Paris Transition	York teachers Literature
-----------------------------	-------------------------------------	------------------------------------

14.10 – 14.55 Closing Plenary: Panel including Steven Fawkes, Sally Maynard, Liz Black:
Next steps – resources and opportunities
And Farewell !

Before and after the event delegates can visit Le Bibliobook – Nathalie Paris’ travelling Library, parked outside Foss Building – and talk about her projects.

Following the Show there will be a meeting of the new Yorkshire German Network coordinated by Liz Black.

After lively professional activity, there is time in the afternoon to enjoy York!

Registration details

Special pilot low cost of £15 per delegate for Individual / Group members of ALL, payable in advance *

* This conference aims to boost membership of the national Association for Language Learning, to ensure that schools are joined up with the support and advice available from the professional community.

Schools / Individuals who are not yet members of ALL should join (Primary school membership rate is just £50 per year) through the ALL website: www.ALL-Languages.org.uk) before applying for the conference.

To register your interest in attending, please fill in the online form here: <http://forms.ncl.ac.uk/view.php?id=10797>
Details of payment and confirmation will then be emailed to you.

Contact is steven.fawkes@gmail.com .

The conference is a pilot event organized by ALLNE, ALL York Primary Hub, ALL Leeds-Bradford Primary Hub, University of York, ALL Yorkshire, Network for Languages NE and York St. John University who are kindly hosting the event.