Spotlight on Best Practice in Language Teaching

- The New Ofsted Framework
- Subject-specific Guidance
- From Good to Outstanding!

What does best practice in language teaching look like in the spotlight of an Ofsted Inspection?

This event will offer:

- an understanding of the new Ofsted MFL specific guidance
- advice by Ofsted's National Adviser for Modern Languages
- a choice of workshops on particular aspects of language teaching which will be scrutinised during an inspection
- practical ideas and examples of best practice by some of the UK's best practitioners in MFL teaching

Keynote Speaker: Elaine Taylor, Ofsted

Elaine Taylor is the National Adviser for Modern Languages at Ofsted. Elaine has been an HMI for six years and the National Adviser since September 2011.

Before joining Ofsted, Elaine worked as a senior leader in a school and as a school improvement officer for a local authority. She taught French and German for over 30 years and trained modern language teachers through links with initial teacher education, including as director of specialism in a training school.
