

Saturday, 3rd May 2014

10.00 – 16.00

DEUTSCH in the DALES

Free event for teachers of German

Venue - The Chapel House, Great Fryupdale YO21 2AS

Host: Liz Black

Provisional programme

- 9.30-10.00 Welcome and refreshments
10.00-10.00 Introduction by Helen Myers
10.10-12.30 Workshops
Speakers to include Steven Fawkes, Eva Lamb and René Koglbauer
Themes: Exciting new resources, including use film, music, authentic texts,
Austrian projects, web links and much more!
12.30 - 1.30 Lunch
1.30 - 2.30 Workshops continued
2.30 - 3.30 Show and Tell
15.30 - 16.00 Kaffee und Kuchen

The aims of the day are:

- to promote and strengthen the teaching of German in our country
- to discuss ways of increasing numbers studying German at KS2, GCSE, AS+A2
- to share teaching ideas and resources
- to immerse ourselves in the culture and the language
- to socialise and have some fun!

Open House on the North York Moors! People are welcome to stay overnight to Sunday and enjoy a meal in the evening at one of the local pubs and weather permitting a walk on the Moors or at Whitby on the beach on Sunday.

Please email to express an interest in attending by Friday 7th March.

We have accommodation in tents available in the garden or at the caravan site at Lealholm and can suggest Bed and Breakfast accommodation locally too if this would help.

Contact Liz on liz@alkira.freeseerve.co.uk

Contributions towards the cost of refreshments welcome.