

What is the Association for Language Learning?

- The professional association for teachers of ALL languages, at ALL levels, in ALL sectors;
- Run by teachers, for teachers;
- Completely independent;
- Exists solely to support and represent language teachers.

What does ALL do?

- Contributes to national debates, and represents the interests of its members;
- Provides information, guidance and support;
- Produces publications, such as Languages Today magazine and journals;
- Runs training courses tailored to teachers' needs;
- Runs the annual Language World conference.

What's so special about ALL?

- An independent voice;
- In direct contact with professionals in the field;
- Active participation of members;
- Bringing together experts, policy makers, researchers, trainers, teachers, student teachers;
- Credibility with decision-makers.

What's in it for me?

- Investment in your own professional future: through information, networks, professional development, staying up to date, membership benefits
- Evidence of your commitment to your subject: for job applications, threshold, performance.
- Support for newly qualified teachers: from your subject community.

Members

- Publications – Languages Today magazine, Language Learning Journal and language specific journals;
- ALLNet – regular, up to the minute information direct to your inbox;
- Events – local, regional and national activities;
- Language World – ideas, advice and inspiration from our unique annual conference.

How do I join ALL?

- Online – at www.all-languages.org.uk;
- By telephone – on 0116 229 7600;
- By email – to info@all-languages.org.uk;
- By post – to: Association for Language Learning, University of Leicester, University Road, Leicester LE1 7RH.

Special offer! Join now for just £20!