

What's happening in languages?

Adult education

The curriculum review

Review of Vocational Education – The Wolf Report

The BBC

Support networks

IfL joint statement with trade unions and employers

1. Support for a professional, high-status, qualified and regulated workforce; an independent, professional membership body; and the importance of retaining a flexible workforce.
2. An agreement that fee policies need to 'feel fair' as well as being as clear and simple as possible.
3. Recognition of the benefits of the 'licence to practise' approach.
4. A review of membership fee levels and agreement to reduce them for the coming two years, 2011/12 and 2012/13.

IfL joint statement with trade unions and employers

5. Occasional Teachers (defined as those teaching no more than 28 hours per year) are not subject to regulations and may join IfL voluntarily if they wish.
6. Individual teachers now Associate Teachers, and subject to regulations.
7. IfL has amended its fees and concessions for 2011/12 and 2012/13:
 - an extension of the £68 fee to two years, for those who have already renewed and paid their membership for 18 months from 1 April.
 - members can now pay an annual fee of £38 for 2011/12 and £38 for 2012/13, with a guarantee that the fee will not be more than £68 in 2013/14
 - a new reduced fee level for those individuals earning £16,000 a year or less, but who are above the personal income tax threshold of £7,475.

Full statement available at: <http://tiny.cc/IfLStatement>.

ALL Together Now!

The Association for Language Learning is:

- The major professional association for teachers of ALL languages, at ALL levels, in ALL sectors;
- Run by teachers, for teachers;
- Completely independent, and our sole purpose is to support and represent language teachers.

ALL Members...

- Receive publications – Languages Today magazine, Language Learning Journal and language specific journals;
- Get ALLNet – brings regular, up to the minute information direct to your inbox;
- Attend our events – local, regional and national activities;
- Attend our unique annual conference, Language World, at reduced rates.

Language World 2011 – ALL Together!

A conference: with all the speakers you want to hear from

An exhibition: with all the latest language teaching resources

An opportunity: to take control of your CPD and stay up to date

A celebration: of language teaching and learning in the UK!

For more information, go to:
<http://tiny.cc/LanguageWorld2011>

Language World 2011 – ALL Together!

Language World 2011:

07-09 July 2011

Imperial College London

Catch up with all that's best in the world of language teaching!

For more information, go to:

<http://tiny.cc/LanguageWorld2011>.

How do I join ALL?

- Online – at www.all-languages.org.uk;
- By telephone – on 0116 229 7600;
- By email – to info@all-languages.org.uk;
- By post – to:

Association for Language Learning,
University of Leicester
University Road, Leicester LE1 7RH.

