

The Links London & South East Showcase and Reception

Date: 16 February 2011, from 3:45 pm - 7:30 pm.

Location: University of Westminster. Cost: This is a free event

BOOK A PLACE NOW!!! Click here to download a booking form or to register online

PROGRAMME OUTLINE

Introduction: Karl Pfeiffer, Director of Educational Links, Goethe Institut

Presentations from:

Hugh Dellar, Teacher Trainer, University of Westminster

Katherine Hewlett, AchieveAbility Director

David Crabtree, Links/AchieveAbility Project

Kathy Wicksteed, Programme Lead, LinkedUp Award Scheme

Showcase of projects and resources

Cheese and wine reception & networking opportunity

EVENT AIMS

- To learn about a variety of innovative and creative LinkedUp projects covering a range of themes, languages and key stages
- To gain ideas to take back to the classroom through discussions with project participants and colleagues from primary, secondary, further and higher education institutions
- To find out more about the AchieveAbility network and the Links AchieveAbility regional pilot project
- To share learning and good practice with colleagues

LINKEDUP PROJECT THEMES INCLUDE:

- developing pupils' linguistic independence and confidence in speaking
- developing and trialling one or more models of intensive language learning
- supporting and recognising pupils' home languages and/or plurilingual approaches to language learning
- creating a smooth pathway of progression between key stages

For more information about the projects and this event, please contact Domini Stone at linkslondon@westminster.ac.uk