Dear

Welcome to the Association for Language Learning!

ALL is an independent organisation, run by teachers for teachers, which serves the needs of languages teachers, departments and professionals throughout the UK.

We hope that you enjoyed your first taste of what the Association has to offer members at Language World, but what other benefits can you expect?

- You will receive discounts at future Language World conferences
- As a member you can now participate in our member-get-member competition. If you recommend a new member to us, and they join, you will receive a £5 book token and will be entered into our prize draw for a free one day place at Language World next year.
- We will keep you up-to-date with all that's happening in the world of languages through our magazine, Languages Today, our language specific journals, and our weekly e-bulletin ALLnet.
- Our new online jobs board allows you to browse specific vacancies for language teachers here: http://www.all-languages.org.uk/community/all_jobs. Make sure you check in on a regular basis to see what's available.
- We run low-cost national, regional and local CPD activities which are further discounted for our members. These events are run by teachers like you so they reflect the current needs of practitioners in the field. Details can be found on the ALL website and in ALLnet.
- ALL gives you the opportunity to voice your concerns on national issues affecting education and languages. ALL reps sit on all the major national bodies and committees for language teaching and language policy so that your concerns can be aired; we regularly consult with our members on the big issues in languages education and provide opportunities for discussion and comment.
- We give local members the chance to meet fellow professionals in their area and to become involved in local activities. You have been assigned to your nearest branch/network which is

We believe that being part of this big language teaching community in the UK will contribute positively to your expertise, knowledge and profile.
