

This presentation was given at the ALL Language World 2010 Conference

It provides information on the FREE KS2 Mandarin Chinese Scheme of Work that fit in with the National KS2 National Framework for Languages

Units 1-6 (Year 4) will be available on www.thechinesestaffroom.com and www.itmfl.org.uk in the summer of 2010, other Years will follow shortly

It covers the work being done by CILT, The National Centre for Languages and Bamboo Learning for the TDA \(Training and Development Agency for Schools\)

The Scheme, like the French and German, covers Years 4-7 and is divided into 24 units (6 per year) each unit has 6 sessions and it designed to last a term (6 per year)

Designed to help Chinese teachers new to primary, primary classroom teachers new to Chinese or Chinese teachers new to the UK system, it will help teachers work together to make Chinese a success at KS2, helping transition to KS3

Greetings and introduction to China

Key Info

Title: Greetings and introduction to ChinaDuration: 05:48

Description: China's official language is Mandarin and we see how children learn it at school with the correct tones and using pinyin, a romanised form of spelling. There's a brief introduction to how Chinese characters are formed and how calligraphy is still practised as an art. This clip also contains simple greetings.

Subject: Chinese Topic: Greeting and Leave Taking

Keywords: ni hao - hello, zai jian - goodbye, zaoshang hao - good morning, zhongguo - China, Mandarin, dialects, ethnic minority, pinyin, tone, characters, pictograph, calligraphy
