

This session will explore embedding Global learning into the curriculum and ethos of the school and look at how school partnerships and activities such as Language assistants can support teaching and learning of languages as well as intercultural learning. There will be opportunities for discussion and case study

British Council Schools

- ENRICHED EDUCATION – Sustained collaboration between the UK and other countries on professional development, curricula, system reform and policy dialogues provides improved educational outcomes for young people.
- GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP INCREASED - Young people and educators demonstrate an increased capacity in the skills, understanding and outlook required to work in a global economy and contribute responsibly to society, locally and globally.

How can we support you ?

School partnerships

- Find a partner school
- Start a conversation
- Share your learning – resources, activities, project forums
- Gain recognition – International School Award

How can we support you ?

Language Assistants

- Bring language and culture to life
- Support the classroom teacher
- Help with international projects
- Support the language skills of the classroom teachers

Resources

Our flagship global learning resources have been developed or co-developed within British Council programmes, working with schools and teachers who exemplify best practice. These resources could be also be used with your partner school in another country.

BBC/British Council – Schools World Service

<http://schoolsonline.britishcouncil.org/bbc-britishcouncil-schools-world-service>

BBC/British Council – Schools World Service

These short films for both primary and secondary schools are designed to raise students' awareness of topical international stories and their effects on the lives of children. They provide a context to develop knowledge and understanding of current affairs and global citizenship and encourage skills and attributes such as discussion and debate, empathy and understanding.

<http://schoolsonline.britishcouncil.org/projects-and-resources/ragdoll-films>

"What Makes Me Happy" from the The Ragdoll Foundation is a series of short, fun films showing that even where lives are difficult children can still find happiness

The British Council has developed two classroom resources for each of these films; one aimed at 5-7 year olds and one for 7-11 year olds. These could be used within your school or in collaboration with a partner school in another country. They link to the Connecting Classrooms themes and so are ideal for use within Connecting Classroom partnerships.

Join the new British Council Schools Online community and get regular newsletter updates of the International School Award and all other opportunities for schools.

<http://schoolsonline.britishcouncil.org/>

Keep in touch !

<http://schoolsonline.britishcouncil.org/projects-and-resources/snakes-and-dragons>