

Adult Education Event LANGUAGE WORLD 2014

SATURDAY 05 APRIL, 09.30 – 17.00
LICA Building, University of Lancaster

Cost: £20 ALL members
£30 non-members

Programme:

09.00 – 10.15: Registration and exhibition visit

(From 09.20 – 10.10 there will be an opportunity to sit in on any one of the first Major Talks at Language World main conference)

10.15 – 10.25: Welcome to AE event

Pauline Swanton, former ALL President and Chair of the ALL AE Special Interest Group

10.25 – 11.00: Session 1: Breaking Barriers in Language Learning

Linda Parker, Director, ALL

- How do we convince decision makers of the benefits of language learning for a much wider group of learners? How does learning a foreign language contribute to the development of essential skills like literacy or to the improvement of personal and social skills?

11.05 – 11.45: Session 2: Brilliant ideas for busy teachers

Led by Chris Ball and Nicola Oldfield

- ALL firmly believes that it's through exchanging ideas and supporting one another that we develop our skills as language teachers. In this session several leading lights in languages education will share an idea with you... and we hope that you'll bring your ideas along also, to show and tell us how they work with your adult learners.

11.50 – 12.35: Session 3: Teaching Listening

Carolyn Batstone, Open University

- This session considers how learning is perceived in relation to other skills and some of the challenges that learners face. It suggests ways we might help language learners to improve their listening skills through a combination of top-down and bottom-up strategies.

12.35 – 14.00: Exhibition visit

Please note that lunch is not included in the delegate fee for the AE event, but there are outlets open on campus to buy lunch.

14.00 – 17.00: Open invitation

AE delegates are welcome to attend any Language World sessions they wish to on the Saturday afternoon programme
