

ALL Together Now!

Why join ALL?

ALL is a subject association and membership charity with very active local, regional and national networks.

1. Be part of a local network of language teachers facing the same challenges.
2. Get free or low cost training at one of our new local primary hubs.
3. Get free online guidance and links to recommended resources for primary teachers and learners.
4. Stay up-to-date through our weekly electronic news bulletin ALLnet.
5. Discover a world of languages in our termly magazine Languages Today.
6. Keep in touch with current thinking through our online publications and website.
7. Come to Language World, the training event of the year for teachers in primary and secondary education.
8. Find out more about cross-curricular approaches to language learning through ALL's FLAME initiative.
9. Shape the future for primary languages by sharing your views with the ALL Primary Special Interest Group.
10. Make friends and be inspired by networking with teachers just like you.

How can I join?

You can join as a primary member of ALL for just £36 per year:

online: www.all-languages.org.uk/join,

by email: info@all-languages.org.uk or by telephone: 0116 229 7600.

Preparing for primary languages in September 2014:

ALL can help your primary school to introduce the new curriculum for primary languages in 2014 in a number of ways:

Online support:

- visit our support pages online to access resources, guidance and training for primary teachers, language coordinators and head teachers: <http://tiny.cc/Support4Primary>.

Local support:

- get involved in one of our primary hubs around the country: <http://tiny.cc/ALLLocal> to access free or reduced price training & networking events: <http://tiny.cc/ALLevents>.

National support:

- get in touch with our virtual Special Interest Group to develop future strategy with colleagues and expert practitioners: <http://tiny.cc/ALLprimary>.

ALL Linked Up:

- get together with your subject community at our annual conference, Language World at Lancaster University, 04-05 April 2014 (<http://tiny.cc/LW2014>), where there will be a complete strand of talks and workshops for primary languages and where there are big discounts on delegate rates for primary members!

ALL membership for primary schools / teachers also includes:

- Membership of your local ALL branch or network;
- Copies of our termly magazine, Languages Today;
- Information, updates and special offers from our corporate members;
- Access to the members' area of the ALL website, with online access to our publications;
- Support and information from our national and international partners relating to specific languages
- A direct line to national agencies and government, who consult ALL regularly
- Regular updates, news and policy through our weekly ALLnet bulletins.

Membership costs just £36 per year for a primary school, which contributes to the costs of running these member services.

So if you are not yet an ALL member, please join us!
