Language Learning

ALL is your national subject association and an independent educational charity. ALL exists to represent and support language teachers - it's run by teachers, for teachers. As a member you receive regular issues of Languages Today magazine and online access to our other publications, free or low-cost local CPD opportunities and a weekly electronic bulletin to keep you up-to-date with your professional context, as well as membership of a national, independent and supportive community of language teachers working on your behalf. Find out what we do and how to get involved at the ALL stand.
