About Dragon Boat Festival

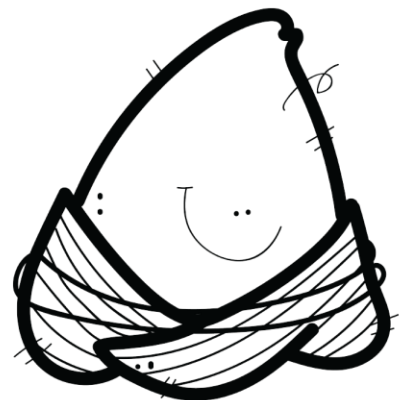

The Dragon Boat Festival, also known as the Duanwu Festival, is a traditional holiday originating in China.

The festival occurs on the 5th day of the 5th month of the traditional Chinese calendar.

In 2017, it occurred on May 30, and in 2018, on June 16.

The Dragon Boat Festival is intended to commemorate Qu Yuan. Qu Yuan was a Chinese poet and minister who lived during the Warring States period of ancient China. Qu was exiled for political reasons, but he still loved his country.

One day, he fell into the Miluo River. It is said that the local people, who admired him, raced out in their boats to save him. This is said to have been the origin of dragon boat races. People dropped balls of sticky rice into the river so that the fish or other creatures would eat them instead of Qu Yuan. This is said to be the origin of zongzi.
