My choice from the Language Learning Journal

- This is from 2020 but it is such a good and important summary of key debates and issues, I'd like to recommend it: Elspeth Broady (2020) Language learning in the UK – taking stock, The Language Learning Journal, 48:5, 501-507, DOI: 10.1080/09571736.2020.1812812

Have you remembered ... ELAPSE?

- <https://lfee.net/elapse>
- If any Branch or Network would like to arrange a session to explore the free online resource created for upper Primary, lower Secondary and transition, please contact ALL trustee Jane Harvey (viz. notes)

Languages Today

- The January edition included a bumper number of articles on aspects of 'Closing the gap'.
- Remember that there are extended versions of some articles + additional articles on the theme on the website in the LT Extra area <https://www.all-languages.org.uk/languages-today>

Languages Today 37

Feedback:

- .. just wanted to write to say how great it was to read Lisa Panford's article in Languages Today about racial bias in MFL. As a secondary languages teacher and ALL member I am very happy to see my professional association discussing and recognising issues like representation in MFL, the lack of BAME MFL teachers, lack of research on pupil attainment by ethnicity - the problems of the colour blind approach and the Eurocentricness of the current MFL curricula head on.

Languages Today 38

- The theme of the next edition is The Big Picture and we are looking for articles for the magazine or LT Extra on:
 - principles, philosophy of approach, inclusion, communication, internationalism, language development, citizenship, culture, motivation etc.
