

Moving on up!

Recovering the Joy of Language Learning

All sessions: 5.30 – 7.00 pm
 (For Face-to-Face sessions, tea/coffee and informal chat from 5pm)

ALL Yorkshire's first Blended Winter Series Online + at King Edward VII School

King Edward VII School, Sheffield, Glossop Road, the Library in the Old Building
 + several sessions on Zoom only

We are resurfacing from what has been the most challenging time for both teachers and students. Whilst there is talk about “catch-up”, “learning gaps” and “recovery” we do not want to lose sight of one the most basic needs our students have: rediscovering how much fun language learning can be and recovering the joy of being successful and making progress. This series is designed to address some of the challenges language teachers face as we are retracing our steps back to best practice in face-to-face lessons as well as acting on what we learnt during remote teaching.

The format of our annual Winter Series is different this year: we are trialling a blended approach. Some of the sessions will be as usual at King Edward VII School, whereas some will be offered on zoom.

This allows us to come back for face-to-face sessions where we can engage in what so many of you have come to value: sharing best practice, exploring new ideas, engaging with each other in informal chats as well as discussing strategies and resources for language teaching.

Offering sessions on zoom allows us to invite speakers further afield for whom it would be impractical to travel to us and at the same time offering part of our programme to teachers from all over the country, not just those who live in and around Sheffield.

All sessions will start at 5.30pm, and for those which take place at King Edward VII School there is also an opportunity for colleagues to meet up beforehand for an informal chat over a cup of tea or coffee.
