The screenshot shows a web browser window with multiple tabs open. The active tab is the Association for Language Learning website, specifically the 'ECT years' page. The website has a red header with the logo and navigation links. The main content area features a large image of a busy street with a clock, overlaid with the text 'ECT years' and 'Support and resources for those starting out as early career languages teachers'. Below this, there is a section titled 'Newly qualified as a language teacher?' which provides information about the support and resources available to early career teachers.
