

Ten good reasons to join ALL

(+1)

www.ALL-languages.org.uk

- Keep up to date: via high quality publications, a specialist website, a weekly email update
- Keep in touch: through regional and national events, social networks or access to online support.
- Evidence your professionalism: by being an active member and updating your subject/ professional knowledge
- Access high quality professional development & networking opportunities: including the annual Language World conference
- Join / or set up .. a local branch or network to meet like-minded professionals, benefit from locally driven professional development and develop your own skills.
- Join others in your specialist area: ALL has Committees interested in specific languages and active Special Interest Groups for ITET, HHCL, Primary, Secondary, CLIL, De-colonising, ...
- Be part of the international community of Language teachers
- Connect with the research community
- Make your voice heard in policy making: have your say in what new accreditations and curricula should look like; take part in government consultations and inform the decision-makers.
- Access resources through projects ALL has run, now available online
- + 1 - Save money! Benefit from discounts on conference rates, and special offers from corporate members